Scrapcode Burnout Static Charge

Your implants crackle with un-discharged power.

Effect: You have accumulated excess static charge; the next person you touch, call Stun against them.

Scrapcode Burnout Static Charge

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Blurt

Corrupted binary spews forth from your vox unit.

Effect: Pick a person within ten feet: call Haywire against them.

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Blurt

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Signal

A pulse of corrupted data erupts from your transmitters.

Effect: Suffer a call of Haywire centred on yourself.

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Signal

Scrapcode Burnout Data Corruption

An old memory, corrupted beyond recovery by the feedback.

Effect: You have forgotten something; you cannot remember what it is, but its loss annoys or saddens you.

Scrapcode Burnout Data Corruption

Scrapcode Burnout Imaging Error

Temporary loss of access to optic nerves: please wait.

Effect: The next time you go to use a Tech Power, it fails to activate and you suffer a Blind effect.

Scrapcode Burnout Imaging Error

Scrapcode Burnout Binary Squeal

Incorrect modulation of voice can lead to damage of equipment and eardrums.

Effect: A loud piercing static squeal erupts from your speakers: call Those who can hear the sound of my voice! Stun (this does not affect you).

Scrapcode Burnout Binary Squeal

Scrapcode Burnout Minor Burnout

A loud pop, followed by the faint smell of smoke.

Effect: One of your implants (your choice) is now fried, and you must repair it.

Scrapcode Burnout Minor Burnout

Scrapcode Burnout Major Burnout

Incredible pain hits you, as your implants all simultaneously overload and fail.

Effect: All of your implants are now fried; you will need someone to help you repair those in hard to reach places.

Scrapcode Burnout Compulsive Loop

Rote and routine are easy things to fall back following data corruption.

Effect: You feel the compulsion to perform a mundane, repetitive, task for the next scene.

Scrapcode Burnout Compulsive Loop

Scrapcode Burnout Secondary Sense Loss

You are aware that one of your redundant senses has stopped functioning.

Effect: Pick either your sense of touch, smell or taste: loose that sense for the remainder of the day.

Scrapcode Burnout Secondary Sense Loss

Scrapcode Burnout Malfunction

Technology, barely understood as it is, can be volatile.

Effect: The next time you use a tech power, it fails and you suffer a call of Rend.

Scrapcode Burnout Malfunction

Scrapcode Burnout Blind Spot

Insanity: doing the same thing over and over again, and expect different results

Effect: The next time you use a tech power - for the duration of that scene, it refuses to work (repeatedly, if you keep trying) and you cannot tell figure out why.

Scrapcode Burnout Blind Spot

Scrapcode Burnout Pattern Recognition

Order and structure are the tools of the Mechanicus.

Effect: For the rest of this scene, you get very uncomfortable if someone speaks in sentences that do not rhyme.

Scrapcode Burnout Pattern Recognition

Scrapcode Burnout Safety Cut-out

Safety features are the bane of the experimental Technomancer.

Effect: The next time you attempt to use your powers, they fail and cannot be used for the rest of the scene.

Scrapcode Burnout Safety Cut-out

Scrapcode Burnout System Lock

Everything goes blue.

Effect: The next time you attempt to use your powers, suffer a Stun effect.

Scrapcode Burnout System Lock

Scrapcode Burnout Internal Errors

Frustrating, and distracting, internal code repairs are the worst.

Effect: For the rest of this scene, you are distracted, attempting to repair damaged lines of code.

Scrapcode Burnout Static Pulse

Error: Energy Overload.

Effect: The next time you attempt to use a Tech Power, it fails. Also, suffer a call of Haywire centred on you.

Scrapcode Burnout Static Pulse

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Infection

Insidious and corrupting, the virus eats into your code.

Effect: You are fighting off an aggressive digital virus; this causes you to be slow and sluggish. You may not use Dodge or any powers for the duration of the next scene.

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Infection

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Trojan

A blurt of corrupted code bursts forth, slaying a nearby machine spirit.

Effect: Select a technological weapon within 10ft: that weapon suddenly explodes, doing Render to anyone holding it.

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Trojan

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Anathema

A nearby machine spirit rebels against your presence.

Effect: Select a technological weapon within 10ft: the machine spirit rebels and refuses to work for the remainder of the scene, or until you commune with it.

Scrapcode Burnout Scrapcode Anathema

Scrapcode Burnout Cascade Failure

Warning: Battery Overload.
Eject Command: Initiated.

Effect: Your internal battery overloads and explodes. Suffer a Boom call centred on you. You cannot use powers until you fabricate a new battery.

Scrapcode Burnout Cascade Failure

Scrapcode Burnout Photovoltaic Burst

Your power forms at your fingertips, then fails in a brilliant blast of light.

Effect: The next time you attempt to use a power, it fails, and you suffer a Blind call centred on you.

Scrapcode Burnout Photovoltaic Burst

Scrapcode Burnout Aphasic Error

001er004r//:

Effect: For the duration of the next scene, you can only speak in incomprehensible blurts of binary/gothic gibberish.

Scrapcode Burnout Aphasic Error

Scrapcode Burnout Forbidden Algorithm

An accidental line in your real-time rendering opens non-euclidian geometry.

Effect: You open an accidental conduit to the Warp, exposing yourself to it. If you were not already brushed by Corruption, you become brushed by Corruption.

Scrapcode Burnout Divide By Zero

You accidentally render an impossible equation, causing neural damage.

Effect: If you were not already brushed by Madness, become brushed by Madness.

Scrapcode Burnout Divide By Zero

Scrapcode Burnout Alert Light

There's always one sensor that isn't quite right, and just wont shut up.

Effect: You have a warning light, and pop-ups constantly appearing in your vision; this is not impairing, but it is annoying. At the end of the scene, they randomly switch off, and you cannot find what caused them.

Scrapcode Burnout Alert Light

Scrapcode Burnout Scrap-Worm

Insidious scrapcode can fester for years before striking.

Effect: You feel fine. The next time you interact with a machine spirit you don't own, its machine code becomes corrupted, and it will not work until it is given extensive care.

Scrapcode Burnout Scrap-Worm

Scrapcode Burnout The Signal

Hypnotic and pulsing, it travels through the airwaves, drawing you to it.

Effect: You latch onto a number-station-like signal. Choose a random direction: follow a signal in that direction, until snapped out of it, or until you are out of sight of other players.

Scrapcode Burnout The Signal

Scrapcode Burnout Recognition Failure

Your facial recognition software appears to have malfunctioned.

Effect: For the duration of the next scene, you find yourself mixing up people's identities.

Scrapcode Burnout Recognition Failure

Scrapcode Burnout Bionic Failure

Your neural links to your cybernetics fail, making them difficult to control.

Effect: For the duration of the next scene, one of your bionics either goes limp or acts autonomously.

Scrapcode Burnout Bionic Failure

Scrapcode Burnout System Crash

In a blast of blue, your systems overload, and you collapse.

Effect: The next time you attempt to use a power, it fails, and your neural cortex crashes. This causes you no mechanical damage, but you drop to the ground limp, while your system reboots.

Scrapcode Burnout System Crash

Scrapcode Burnout Deja Vu

A glitch in your neural matrix makes the world repeat itself.

Effect: At some point, in the next scene after you have finished doing something: return shortly after to the same place, and repeat exactly what you did before. You cannot recall doing it the first time.

Scrapcode Burnout Unsettled Machines

Glitches in your systems mean that machine spirits are less easily persuaded.

Effect: Machines will not function for you without appropriate persuasion. You must tenderly fawn over them, and address them almost amorously in order to persuade them to work.

Scrapcode Burnout Unsettled Machines

Scrapcode Burnout Pattern Repetition

Deet deet, doot doot, deet deet, doot doot.

Effect: You have picked up a repetitive tune: for the duration of the day (or until it ceases to be fun), hum it loudly at the most inappropriate moments.

Scrapcode Burnout Pattern Repetition

Scrapcode Burnout Muted Audio-Feed

Audio recongition: failure. Reboot: Y/N?

Effect: For the duration of the next scene, everyone appears to be speaking incredibly quietly, forcing you to ask them to repeat themselves several times and/or talk louder for you to be able to hear them.

Scrapcode Burnout Muted Audio-Feed

Scrapcode Burnout Plasma Vent

Power overload. Venting battery into surroundings. All biological forms: retreat.

Effect: The next time you use a power, you overheat causing your battery to vent energy and gasses. You can either contain the energy and become Wounded, or vent it - causing Burn venting from your back targeting anyone behind you.

Scrapcode Burnout Plasma Vent

Scrapcode Burnout Security Failure

Social security protocol: disengaged. Dispersing classified file to Noosphere.

Effect: You must inform a fellow Tech-Adept or Lay-Mechanicus of one of your secrets (inform them OOC that this is you blurting this into the Noosphere rather than talking to them)

Scrapcode Burnout Security Failure

Scrapcode Burnout Noospheric Pollution

Initialising: disabling local Noosphere SPAM filters.

Effect: You have picked up annoying scrapcode. For the duration of a scene you are compelled to incessantly inform others of useless factoids, or attempt to sell them services that they do not require.

Scrapcode Burnout Noospheric Pollution

Scrapcode Burnout Connection Lost

Connecting to local Noosphere.....
Connection Not Found.

Effect: For the duration of the next scene, you cannot establish a Noospheric connection. Obviously, this is deeply distressing to you (they say Noospheric withdrawal is a thing).

Scrapcode Burnout Connection Lost

Scrapcode Burnout FUBAR

You were warned about the many dangers of dabbling with high technology.

Effect: Find a Ref as soon as possible.

This is going to be interesting.

Scrapcode Burnout FUBAR
